

This project involved the internal refurbishment of a large flat within a purpose built block. The works consisted of a new electrical and lighting installation together with the replacement of internal joinery.

All bathrooms were refitted to a very high specification and a new purpose made kitchen was installed.

The complete internal redecoration consisted of painting, wall coverings and specialist paint finishes. The works were completed on site in 6 weeks.